Roman Ruins at Bath

anglo-saxon england
miami 1lr, spring 2004

hadrian's wall

anglo-saxon england
miami 1lr, spring 2004

the franks casket

anglo-saxon england
miami 1lr, spring 2004

Anglo-Saxon Chronicle

- ◆ 300-year history (9th-12th)
- ◆ Inspired by Alfred?
- ◆ 1st narrative prose in a European vernacular
- ◆ several traditions

anglo-saxon england
miami llr, spring 2004

4

A-S Chronicle: 449

- Angles, Saxons, Jutes

- Invited by Vortigern

- Traditionally 449

- Hengest and Horsa

- Called descendants of Woden (Odin)

anglo-saxon england
miami 1lr, spring 2004

A-S Chronicle: 793

- beginning of Viking harassment of English

- 'Fiery dragons' in the air, pestilence, storms

- portent of Viking attacks on Lindisfarne

anglo-saxon england
miami 1LR, spring 2004

A-S Chronicle: 878

- Alfred's battles with Viking invaders

- establishment of Danelaw

- conversion of the Danes

anglo-saxon england
miami 1/r, spring 2004

7

A-S Chronicle: 1066

- Harold defeats Vikings at Stamford Bridge

- Battle of Hastings

- Oppression

Halley's comet (Bayeux tapestry)

anglo-saxon england
miami 1LR, spring 2004

Bede's Ecclesiastical History

- Pope Gregory appoints Augustine 597

- Canterbury 597

- Northumbria mid-seventh

- Irish missionaries & monasteries

- Synod of Whitby: reconciliation

Bede: 673-735

anglo-saxon england
miami 1LR, spring 2004

Bede: conversion of Edwin

- Northumbria, mid-7th century

- Missionary Paulinus, priest Coifi, other

- Sparrow in the hall

- Comitatus ideal

- Destruction of idols/ Pagan v. Christian

anglo-saxon england
miami 1/r, spring 2004

Bede: Caedmon

- Illiterate brother at Whitby

- Vision of stranger

- Holy songs using traditional Germanic verse

- 'Caedmon's Hymn'

- 'School of Caedmon' existence unclear

anglo-saxon england
miami llr, spring 2004

11

Old English poetry

- 2 half-lines per verse/caesura/4-stress

- alliteration: 1 and/or 2 + 3

- vocabulary & variation

- heroic, elegaic, religious

- kenning: metaphors

- litotes: ironic understatement

Caedmon's Hymn

- Simple lyric

- Variations on 'God': guardian (2), ruler, glory-father, creator, lord (3)

- 'Middle-earth'

Deor

- Figures of Germanic legend -- some unknown

- Allusive treatment, assumes recognition

- Unusual stanzaic structure

- Weland/Beadohild story

- Related to personal sorrow

- Theme of exile from comitatus

- Hopeful/fatalistic?

anglo-saxon england
miami 1LR, spring 2004

Finnsburh fragment

- How long is it?

- Story recurs in Beowulf

- Related to Hengest the settler?

- Theme of divided loyalty

- Swearing allegiance to lord's killer

- Violation of comitatus

anglo-saxon england
miami 1cr, spring 2004

Waldere

- Another tale from Germanic legend

- Lovers ambushed; later ballad subject

- Speeches

- Weland, sword

anglo-saxon england
miami 1LR, spring 2004

The Battle of Maldon (1)

- Another fragment

- Actual event of 893

- Was Byrhtnoth foolish?

- Themes of loyalty

- Speech of old retainer/heroic code

anglo-saxon england
miami 1⁄r, spring 2004

The Battle of Maldon (2)

Hige sceal the heardra, Thought must (be) the harder,

heorte the cenre,
heart the keener,

mode sceal the mare,
spirit must (be) the greater,

the ure mægen lytlath.
as our strength grows less.
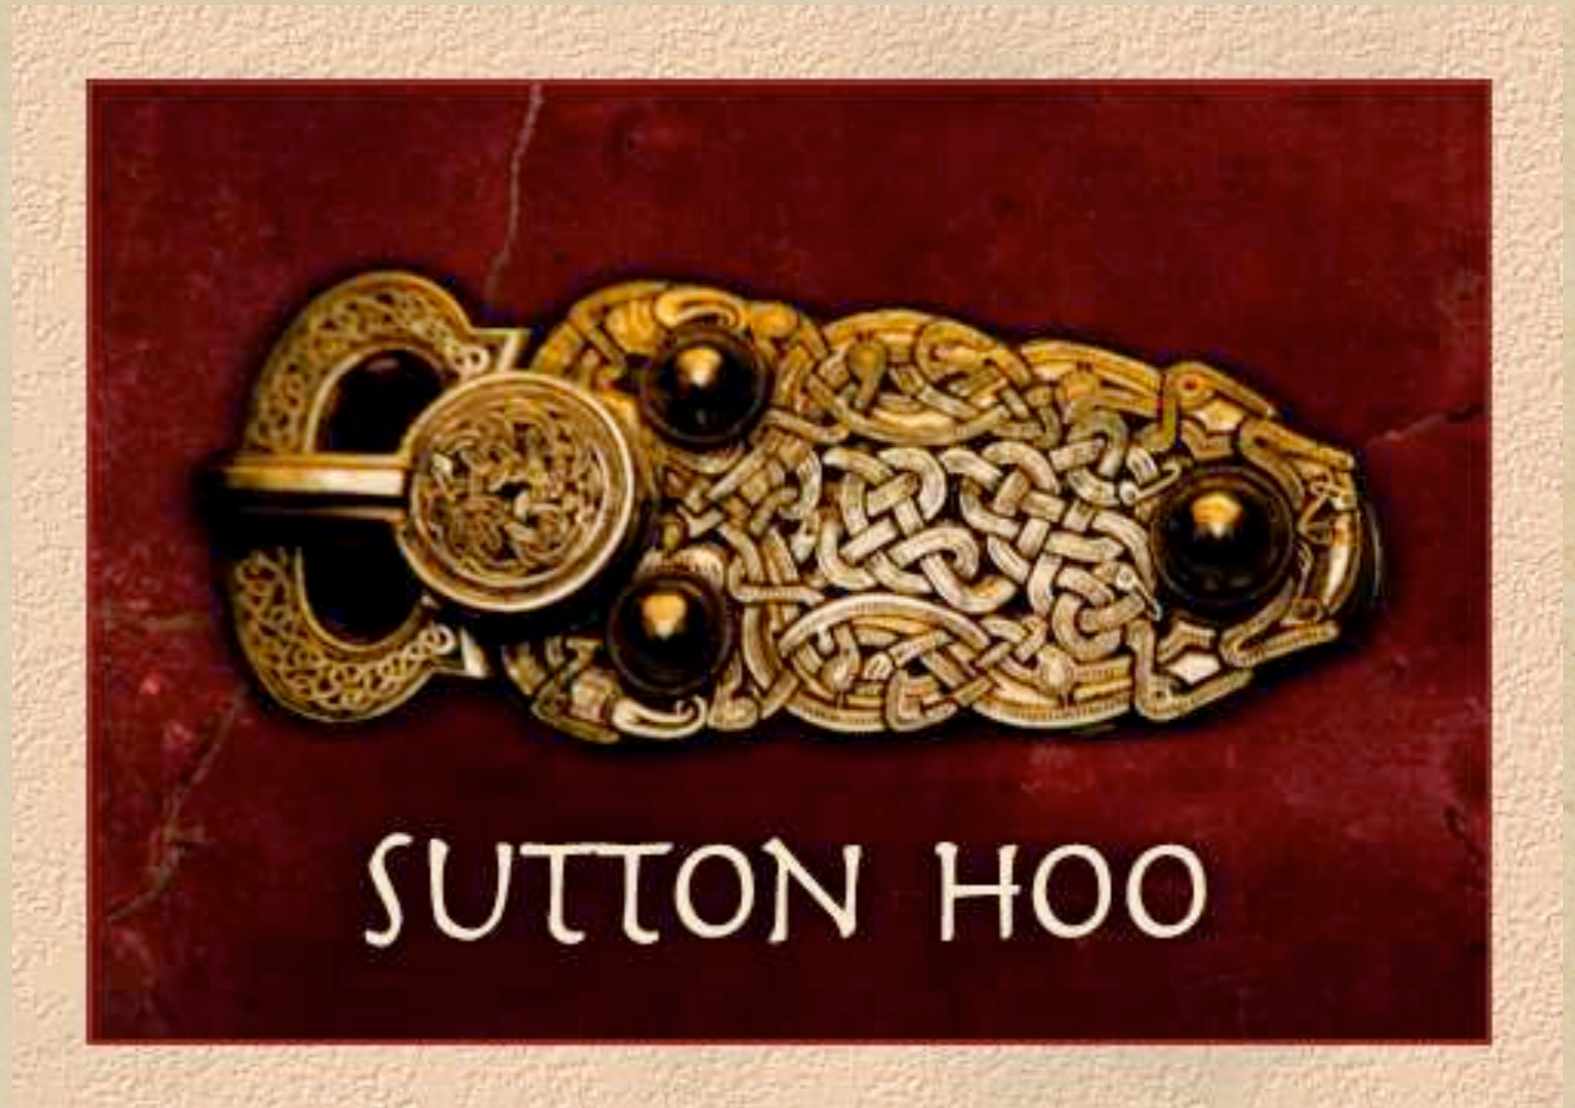

anglo-saxon england
miami ur, spring 2004

18

Sutton Hoo (1)

- Site near Woodbridge in SE Sussex, 1939

- Richest burial ever discovered in Britain

- Anglo-Saxon ship & treasures

- King Raedwald of East Anglia (died c. 627)?

- Baptized, reverted to paganism

anglo-saxon england
miami ilr, spring 2004

Sutton Hoo (2)

Belt buckle

SUTTON HOO

anglo–saxon england
miami ilr, spring 2004

Sutton Hoo (3)

Dragon staff

DRACA

HE WHO SEEKS OUT
BARROWS, FLIES BY NIGHT,
THE SMOOTH MALICIOUS DRAGON,
BURNING AND WRAPPED IN FLAME

BEOWULF

EVANS (1986)

anglo-saxon england
miami 1lr, spring 2004

Sutton Hoo (4)

Clasps

CLOISONNÉ

EVANS (1986)

anglo-saxon england
miami 1lr, spring 2004

the Franks Casket (1)

anglo-saxon england
miami 1lr, spring 2004

the Franks Casket (2)

- Whalebone box, early 8th century

- Runic carvings of OE verse

- Mixture of cultures:

- Roman (Romulus and Remus)

- Pagan Germanic (Weland & Beadohild)

- Christian: Adoration of the Magi

anglo-saxon england
miami ur, spring 2004

the Franks Casket (3)

front panel

anglo–saxon england
miami 1LR, spring 2004

the Franks Casket (4)

Weland & Beadohild

anglo-saxon england
miami 1lr, spring 2004

the Franks Casket (5)

Adoration of the Magi

anglo–saxon england
miami llr, spring 2004

The Dream of the Rood

- Cross as speaker

- Several lines carved on the Ruthwell Cross in Scotland

- Cross as Christ's thane

- Heroic ideal in Christian terms

anglo-saxon england
miami ilr, spring 2004

The Wanderer

- 'Elegaic' poems from the Exeter Book

- Theme of exile

- Bleak nature poetry mimics mood

- Fate ('Wyrd')

- Christian consolation

anglo-saxon england
miami ILR, spring 2004

The Seafarer

- Another elegy about exile in the Exeter Book

- Vivid pictures of seafaring life

- Famous translation by Ezra Pound

anglo-saxon england
miami ilr, spring 2004

The Wife's Lament

anglo-saxon england
miami 1LR, spring 2004

The Husband's Message

anglo-saxon england
miami 1LR, spring 2004

The Ruin

- Possibly Bath

- Roman baths built on Celtic sacred site

- Goddess Sula, Aquae Sulis

- 'Enta geweorc' -- work of giants

- Stoic lament for transitoriness of life

- Appropriately, a fragment

anglo-saxon england
miami 1LR, spring 2004

Riddles

- Part of Exeter Book collection

- Keen observation of the natural world

- Virtually the only humor in OE literature

- Playfulness

- Sense of world as metaphor

anglo-saxon england
miami ilr, spring 2004

Beowulf -- introduction

Hƿæt! Ƿe Gardena

Hwæt!   We   Gardena
Listen!   We   (of the) Spear-Danes

in geardagum

in   geardagum
in   yore-days

þeodcyninga

theodcyninga (of the) tribe-kings

þrym gefrunon

thrym   gefrunon glory   have heard

hu þa æþelingas

hu   tha   æthelingas
how   those worthy (ones)

ellen fremedon.

ellen   fremedon.
(deeds of) courage performed.

anglo-saxon england
miami ILR, spring 2004

Beowulf -- the text

- Emblematic poem for Old English

- Much remains unknown

- Single manuscript

- Anywhere from 8th-10th centuries

- Presents stories from continental Germans

anglo-saxon england
miami 1/r, spring 2004

Beowulf -- key questions

- Who wrote it?

- Where does it fit into Anglo-Saxon literature?

- When was it written? (Offa 122?)

- For whom was it written?

- How was it written?

anglo-saxon england
miami ilr, spring 2004

37

Beowulf -- key oppositions

- Folk-tale vs. history (75, 129)

- Men vs. monsters (91, 92

- Good vs. evil

- Light vs. dark (113, 144)

- Fate ('wyrd') vs. action (88)

- Pagan vs. Christian (97, 117,

- 'Quid Hinieldus cum Christo?' (124)

anglo-saxon england
miami 1LR, spring 2004

Beowulf -- cultural basis

- Oral vs. literate cultures

- 'Shame cultures' vs. 'guilt cultures'

- Set in the heroic past

- Identification with Geats? Danes? Swedes?

anglo-saxon england
miami 1lr, spring 2004

Beowulf -- oral-formulas

- Pre-literate society

- Poets memorized overall plots, brief formulas

- Performance, not text (remember Caedmon)

- How do they get written down?

- Is this the origin of Beowulf (95)?

Beowulf -- tragic figures

- Hrothgar (103)

- Hygelac (129, 133)

- Wealhtheow (103-4), Freawaru (124)

- Hildeburh (100), cf. Finnsburh Fragment

- Hengest

- Hrethel (135)

Beowulf -- key passages

- Death of Scyld Scefing (74)

- Grendel's mere (108)

- Hrothgar's sermon (117)

- 'Lay of the Last Survivor' (130)

anglo-saxon england
miami 1(r, spring 2004

Beowulf -- design for irony

- The pattern of 'until' (99, 117, but 119)

- Grendel's mother acting out of revenge (105)

- Hrothgar, Heorot are doomed (76,

- The Geats are doomed after Beowulf's death

- Revenge (106, 108)

- Treasure consumed by fire (131, 154)

Beowulf -- 'ubi sunt'

- 'Where are' . . . glories of the past

- coupled in Beowulf with dark futures

- Origin in religious literature

- Frequent theme in OE literature

- cf. 'The Ruin' and other elegies

- cf. François Villon

anglo-saxon england
miami llr, spring 2004

44

Beowulf

- What does it all mean?

- Is endless warfare our fate?

- Is there a way out?

- Is there meaning in the struggle?

- Pagan vs. Christian eschatology

- 'Beowulf: the Monsters and the Critics'

anglo-saxon england
miami ILR, spring 2004